

Exciting Job Opportunity with African Youth Development Organization:

Junior Facilitator Intern (Okiep High School) X1
 (Aggeneys High School) X1
 (Boesmanland High School - Pofadder) X1

gold Youth Development Agency (gold-youth) is an innovative youth development organization that has been rolling out an evidence based and scalable youth peer education model since 2004, with demonstrated impact in youth social behaviors change, education, and job creation.

gold-youth is seeking a special African applicant, committed like us to changing the system of youth education and upbringing in Africa. The role entails the implementation of the gold Peer Education Programme which will require the successful applicant to deliver services to specified schools or community sites. This will include peer education skills training sessions, mentoring sessions, academic support sessions, as well as the supervision of youth driven activities and support in community linkages

We are looking for an organised and committed Junior Facilitator Intern (19 - 26 years old) - someone who enjoys working in a team, training youth, supporting, mentoring, role-modelling and the ability and willingness to performing essential administrative duties. Are you a self-motivated, detail-oriented individual who is able to follow processes and procedures? Are you inspired to support our efforts as a Pan African organization, at a pivotal time, when gold-youth is making a leap in terms of growth and expansion?

Forward your CV together with the one-page motivational letter to Vincent Molete at lehlohonolo@goldyouth.org by the end of business on 18/11/2022.

Should you be shortlisted you will be contacted and engaged for participating in the interview process during the month of Nov 2022 the candidate for this position is expected to start by 2 Jan 2023. Should you not hear back from us a day after the advert has closed, please consider your application as unsuccessful.

Please state the School you are applying for on Subject line.

Goodluck!
